Graduation or End of Term or Course Reporting

- Schools are required to report graduation or program completion to VA using the VA-ONCE Terminate option
 - Student graduates from a degree program (AA, BA, MA) “Graduation” should be selected as the termination reason
 - Student completes a Non-College Degree program (technical diploma, certificate program) “End of Term or Course” should be selected as the termination reason
- The LDA/EFF Date will be pre-populated to reflect the last date of the enrollment you selected to report this information
- If a student has multiple enrollment certifications for the same term, the enrollment period with the LATEST end date should be used to report the information
 - Enrollments submitted to VA
 - 01/13/2017-05/15/2017 ← This is the latest course date and should be used to report graduation
 - 01/13/2017-03/10/2017

VA-ONCE Termination for Graduation and End of Term or Course reporting

Graduation

- Why does VA want you to report graduation?
 - Executive Order 13607 of April 27, 2012: Establishing Principles of Excellence for Educational Institutions Serving Service Members, Veterans, Spouses, and Other Family Members
 - Implementation of the Principles of Excellence ordered VA, DoD, and DoED to develop outcome measures allowing students to make comparisons across Federal educational programs, across institutions, and types of institutions
 - VA determined using VA-ONCE to gather this information satisfied the Executive Order's request to rely on existing administrative data to minimize the reporting burden on institutions

Earned 'F' Grades: To report, or not to report?

When a veteran or eligible person interrupts or terminates their training, changes their enrollment (voluntary or involuntary reductions or terminations), violates the established policies for attendance, conduct or progress, or for corrections to information previously certified in error, these changes must be reported to VA.

Earned 'F' Grades: To report, or not to report?

Question: Are schools required to report any changes in attendance, or only those that violate the schools attendance policy?

Answer: Schools with an established attendance policy must monitor compliance with that policy, enforce the policy, and report terminations due to violations of the policy to VA without delay. However, absences that do not violate the established attendance policy don't need to be reported. Schools that don't have an established attendance policy are not required to report changes in attendance.

Question: If a student completes a period of enrollment with a failing punitive grade (i.e. an F) assigned, does the school need to report the last date of attendance during that enrollment period?

Answer: No. The last date of attendance during a period of enrollment does not need to be reported if a student completes the enrollment period with a punitive grade and does not violate the school's standards of conduct, progress, or attendance during that term.

Non-Punitive Grades Assigned at the End of Term

A non-punitive grade is a grade that does not count as earned credit. A non-punitive grade is not calculated into the student's GPA, is not considered in progress standards for graduation, and is not considered in academic progress criteria like probation and suspension. Non-punitive grades have the same effect as an audit course. They don't apply to the degree and they don't affect academic progress.

VA does not pay for non-punitive grades.

If a student completes the term and receives non-punitive grades, the non-punitive grades must be reported to VA. Do not report end of term non-punitive grades that students receive for courses that were certified as remedial courses.

Non-Punitive Grades Assigned at the End of Term

- With the appropriate term selected in VA-ONCE, choose “Adjust”.
- The reason “Student Completed Term But Non-Punitive Grades Assigned For One Or More Courses” should be selected, and the credit load adjusted appropriately. The “LDA/EFF Date” for end of term non-punitive grades is the end date of the term.
 - If a student certified 12 credits receives a non-punitive grade for a 3 credit class, report the non-punitive grade as an adjustment from 12 to 9 credits hours.
 - If a change in credit is certified for Chapter 33 the corresponding change in tuition, fees, and Yellow Ribbon for the remaining credit must also be reported.

Incomplete or 'I' Grades

Some institutions allow the assignment of an "I" (incomplete) grade on a provisional basis only. These institutions require a student to remove the "I" grade within a specified time (e.g., by the end of the term following the term for which the "I" grade was assigned). If the student does not replace the "I" grade within the prescribed time period, a punitive failing grade will be assigned and recorded in the student's academic record. Institutions that have and enforce such a policy, and prescribe a maximum time period for grade replacement of less than one year, are not required to report the assignment of an "I" grade as an NP grade.

"And then I just hit delete. I haven't actually eaten any homework for years."

Incomplete or 'I' Grades

- Many institutions have a grading policy that permits an "I" grade to be replaced with a non-punitive (NP) grade, or which allows a NP "I" grade to remain in a student's record indefinitely. In such cases the school must report the incomplete grade as non-punitive at the time the grades are assigned.
- If it is resolved into a punitive grade (passing or failing) within one year of the date it was originally assigned, the school should report the change to VA. Such reports should clearly indicate that the change in enrollment status being reported is the replacement of an "I" grade previously reported by adding a remark to the certification.
- If at the end of the 1-year control period no report has been received from the institution to indicate that the "I" grade has been replaced, the VA will assume that the "I" grade has not been changed.

Incomplete or 'I' Grades

- Chapter 33: All incomplete grades must be reported for Chapter 33 per the rules stated in the previous slides.
- Chapters 30, 32, 35, 1606, and 1607: An incomplete grade doesn't need to be reported if training time isn't affected.

Example: A student takes 15 credit hours, completes 12 credit hours, and receives 3 credit hours incomplete. Training time isn't affected because the incomplete doesn't change the student's full-time training time.

Standards of Academic Progress (SAP)

- All schools must maintain progress records (academic transcript, for example) that clearly illustrate students' progress towards the completion of their program. School officials are responsible for enforcing their established standards of progress.
- Both accredited and non-accredited schools are required by law to have and to enforce standards of progress and conduct in order for their programs to be approved for VA benefits.
- When a student has failed to maintain prescribed standards of progress, VA must be informed promptly so that benefit payments can be discontinued in accordance with the law.

SAP Failure: Placed on Academic Probation

Schools that have an academic progress policy allowing for a period of academic probation prior to termination for Unsatisfactory Progress (Academic Suspension) should notify VA promptly when a student receiving VA education benefits is placed on academic probation. Notifications should be sent using VA's "Ask a Question".

Notifications should include the student's name and file number in the text. If multiple students are placed on academic probation (e.g., end of term, semester, quarter) schools may submit a single notification to VA by indicating that multiple students were placed on academic probation in the text and attaching an Academic Probation Spreadsheet listing each student.

School Official Completes
Benefit Chapter	SSN/File Number	Payee Number	Last Name	First Name	Facility Code	Beginning Date Academic Probation	Zip Code Current Address

All notifications must include "Academic Probation" in the subject line.

SAP Failure: Placed on Academic Probation

- Students should be advised of any counseling services available to them at the school in order to resolve academic or other problems and to establish a meaningful plan for successful completion of their education or training.
- Schools and training establishments are asked to remind students of the counseling services (page 78 of the SCO Handbook) and tutorial assistance benefits (page 89 of the SCO Handbook) available through VA.
- Schools that provide a period of academic probation may not continue to certify a Veteran or eligible person (who remains in a probationary status) for an indefinite period of time.

SAP Failure: Placed on Academic Probation

The student will receive a letter from VA when they are reported to be on Academic Probation:

SAP Failure: Placed on Academic Suspension

The law requires that educational assistance benefits to Veterans and other eligible persons be discontinued when the student ceases to make satisfactory progress toward completion of his or her training objective. Unsatisfactory Progress (Academic Suspension) must be reported to VA as a termination. Terminate the semester the student is suspended. If suspension follows the fall semester, for example, terminate fall semester. Choose “Unsatisfactory Attendance, Conduct, or Progress” as the reason.

SAP Failure: Placed on Academic Suspension

If a student successfully petitions the dismissal, is readmitted, and is already certified the subsequent term, don't terminate the student. Instead, annotate the student's file that the student was dismissed and readmitted following a successful appeal. If enrollment status changed the subsequent term, be sure to adjust the credit for the term. When you submit the termination, a pop-up window will appear asking about subsequent terms if any are to be certified.

SAP Failure: Placed on Academic Suspension

The student will receive a suspension letter:

Our regulations require that students maintain satisfactory attendance, conduct, and progress to continue receiving VA education benefits. The school certifying official is required to notify VA when a student doesn't meet these requirements. We stopped your educational assistance payments on May 17, 2014, because we received school notification that your progress in training hasn't been satisfactory.

What You Can Do to Restart Your Benefits

If you re-enroll in the same program and in the same school, we can start your payments when your school sends your enrollment information.

If you enroll in a different program or a different school, you must send us a completed VA Form 22-5495. In addition, before we can pay benefits we may need evidence to show that the cause of your unsatisfactory progress in training is not likely to recur. Here are examples of the kinds of information that we may require:

- A written explanation of why you couldn't maintain satisfactory progress in training.
- A written explanation of how you plan to overcome the problems causing your unsatisfactory progress in training.
- A transcript of grades or evaluation of performance from your prior school or place of training.
- A copy of your official notice of acceptance into your proposed program. This should include the school's evaluation of your prior training and experience.
- A copy of your counselor's recommendations if you have received counseling at school.

If you would like counseling assistance in choosing a new program, you may contact VA at 1-800-827-1000. (For the hearing impaired, dial 1-800-829-4833.)
